SELECTION OF CANDIDATES

Siena students will be selected by a committee composed of at least three (3) faculty members of the degree courses involved in the programmes as suggested by the President of the relevant Didactic Committee (Comitato per la Didattica). Students will be assessed on the basis of the following criteria:

- personal statement;
- Curriculum Vitae;
- language competence (also attested during the interview, see below);
- university career to date, credits and grades obtained in the first semester of the Master Degree course;

- individual interview, to be held in French.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS FOR THE PROGRAMME

Students participating in the double degree programme must have completed all university credits (CFU) as provided in their respective 1st year study plan before the start of courses at the host University. In the case of failure in meeting this requirement, the case will be submitted to the Didactic Committee, which will evaluate whether the student may participate in the programme.

Successful candidates must follow their Host University's instruction of application procedures.

DISSERTATION DEFENCE

Details on dissertation defense will be agreed by the Parties case by case.

TUITION FEES AND COSTS

At the host institution student tuition fees for exchange students will be waived on a reciprocal basis. Students will be required to pay tuition to their home institution during the exchange period.
Should they not succeed in getting the Master degree in either of the two universities within the legal terms of the 2nd year, students may be required to enrol to the following academic year and pay the relevant tuition fees.
Students may receive a scholarship from their Home Institution according to its policies.

STUDY PLAN

- During their study period at the University of Siena, Paris students will have to obtain 60 ECTS according to the following procedure:

The student will obtain the required 60 CFU/ETCS following the format of second year study plan active during the academic year of the student's stay. The student will select the courses to follow from either curriculum of the MA (Linguistics and cognition, Philosophy and cognition.) The 12 CFU indicated as 'Chosen by the student activities' can be selected either among the non-previously selected courses or among some of the courses of the first year. In the preparation of the personal plan, the student is invited to ask for advice to the program coordinator before arrival in Siena. The didactic committee will approve the plan prepared by the student at the beginning of the student's stay in Siena.
